21 Laws Of Dating By Terry Bams

Popular media tends to focus on the pursuit of healthy relationships centered on the self or individual. This is a novel approach that has couples working together to improve communication with each other that will allow a healthy relationship to be maintained when you work towards mutual goals.

Many couples and individuals seeking a life partner will be able to relate to the many challenges in life that are outlined in this guide. There is much that can be learned from the characters illustrated in the storyline within this book. Guidelines are laid out in a unique setting of a love story built on love, trust, and friendship. This is not your typical “how to” self-help book. It is a “real life” self-help book.

Only together will a couple reach their ultimate journey in life, love, and happiness with a spiritual foundation.
