Editorial Review

Review

“Summing Up: Recommended. Lower-division undergraduates through graduate students.” (Choice, 1 July 2014)

Review

“This outstanding volume brings the contemporary debates of bioethics to life. Thoughtful introductions to contextualize each topic combined with interactive debates results in an outstanding and unique resource.”

—David Magnus, Director, Center for Biomedical Ethics, Stanford University

“I savor controversies and debates and this riveting new book has 15 great ones from the field of bioethics, debates that transcend academic disputes to engage the public, public intellectuals, and the Supreme Court on topics like assisted suicide, gene patenting, human cloning, and health reform.”

—Mark Siegler, University of Chicago
