Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

The first and last of the apostles, John witnessed the death of Christ, the birth of the church, and the rise of heresies. As the cousin and beloved disciple of Jesus, John knew the truth about the Lord as did no other person on earth—and he penned his gospel to make that truth clear. With profound simplicity, he confronts us with the Lord's deity, and he portrays to us Christ's glory, but he never lets us forget Jesus' humanity. Dr. Phillips' writing has both substance and style—appropriate for the scholar and the layman.

"This series has features that will make it a favorite of Bible students: detailed alliterative outline; notes about the authorship; straightforward interpretation of the text; practical application."

—Bookstore Journal

"John Phillips writes with enthusiasm and clarity, . . . cutting through the confusion and heretical dangers associated with Bible interpretation."

—Moody Magazine

"Well-outlined and illustrated. . . . Will hold the interest of lay readers and will provide Sunday School teachers and preachers much material."

—John Kohlenberger III

"In the style that has commended him to numbers of Bible-loving people, [Dr.] Phillips deals with . . . biblical exposition in a Christ-honoring, easily-read style."

—The Baptist Bulletin

John Phillips received his Doctor of Ministry degree from Luther Rice Seminary. He served as assistant director of the Moody Correspondence School as well as director of the Emmaus Correspondence School, one of the world's largest Bible correspondence ministries. He also taught in the Moody Evening School and on the institute's radio network. Now retired, Dr. Phillips remains active in his writing and preaching. He and his wife, Betty, live in Bowling Green, Kentucky.
