How to Achieve 100% in a GCSE - Guide to GCSE Exam and Revision Technique By Robert Blakey

How to Achieve 100% in a Gcse - Guide to Gcse Exam and Revision Technique. Written by a teenager for teenagers, this simple guide guarantees success in your Gcses. Upon its publication the book was featured in The Daily Mail, The Sun and various educational publications becoming an Amazon Uk bestseller. Having achieved 10 A* grades (4 with a score of 100%), the author shares practical tips on revision and exam technique directly relating to current Gcse specifications, including specific subject advice. The book is written from the perspective of a 16-year-old student who believes that everyone has the potential to achieve 100% in a Gcse. The author focuses on how to study for and answer Gcse exam questions, in contrast to the many revision guides that concentrate on what to study. Confused about how to prepare for your Gcses? Bored of the normal advice? Then this is the book for you. Second edition edited, updated and expanded by Patrick Blakey, September 2012.

Editorial Review

About the Author

After writing his first book 'How to Achieve 100% in a GCSE', Rob completed A-levels in German, History and Psychology, plus A/S English Literature, achieving straight A*s. The teenager went on to study undergraduate Experimental Psychology at the University of Oxford. During university holidays, Rob worked at a Kumon study centre, continuing his interest in helping young people fulfil their academic potential. In December 2013, Rob released his second book 'I Hate Revision: Study Skills and Revision Techniques for GCSE, A-level and Undergraduate Exams'. In July 2014, he graduated from Oxford, achieving First Class Honours with Distinction and a departmental prize for securing the second top degree mark in his subject year group. At the end of September 2014, Rob will return to the University of Oxford to study a one-year Master's and then a three-year PhD in criminology, funded by an Economic and Social Research Council 1+3 (MSc+PhD) studentship.
