They say good things come in small packages. How about SIX?

High-flying executive Rachelle Smith is in the Middle East for a conference. Ordinarily all-business, her professional instincts fall by the wayside when she meets Darian, a sizzling hot sheikh, and member of the royal family of Zaradi. The connection between them is white hot and the two strike up an irresistible romance.

Brushing off rumors of unrest in the country, Rachelle is eager to spend more time getting to know the Sheikh, but after one fateful night of passion the lovers are cruelly torn apart! The country is beset by a coup, the royal family deposed, and divided.

Rachelle is heartbroken by Darian's disappearance, but her attempts to contact him prove fruitless. When her doctor confirms that she's carrying a little something – or rather, six little somethings – to remember him by, however, she knows what she must do...

She must overcome the odds to find Darian, the father to-be, and let him know that they're about to become a big, big family.
