The Mad Trapper By Rudy Wiebe

When it began, he was just another stranger without a name. When it ended, he was the most notorious criminal in North America, the object of the largest manhunt in RCMP history.

This is the story of Albert Johnson, the Mad Trapper, a silent man of superhuman strength and endurance, who defied capture for fifty days in the bitter cold of winter, north of the Arctic Circle. He was a man who crossed hundreds of miles of frozen tundra on foot, who survived dynamite blasts and the pursuit of police, trappers and the army, and who became the first man to cross the Richardson Mountains in a blizzard.

Sylvia Alexander:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this The Mad Trapper can make you sense more interested to read.
