By Michael W. Martin, Paul Radvany, Lawrence A. Dubin, Thomas F. Guernsey

Trial Practice (2014) By Michael W. Martin, Paul Radvany, Lawrence A. Dubin, Thomas F. Guernsey

In this second edition of Trial Practice, one of the first trial advocacy books, the authors provide a comprehensive update and overview of what it takes to successfully try a case before a jury or a judge, from trial strategy to implementation. With co-authors Lawrence A. Dubin and Thomas F. Guernsey, who wrote the first edition, Professors Michael W. Martin and Paul Radvany offer detailed advice with numerous examples, while maintaining the reliable structure of the original.

As well as teaching trial practice to students and lawyers in government and private practice, Professors Martin and Radvany have represented the government and individuals in criminal trials, and plaintiffs and defendants in civil trials. In this edition, they communicate their experience teaching trial advocacy and conducting trials in federal and state courts, arbitrating commercial disputes, and arguing federal and state appeals to law students and lawyers, providing students with a strong foundation in trial skills and more experienced attorneys with an effective reference guide.

In addition to detailed chapters devoted to each trial skill and evidence, the book also includes:

- An entire chapter devoted to Case Theory and Story Telling
- Key concepts for a quick review at the beginning of each chapter
- Useful checklists for each trial skill set to remind readers of important concepts
- A chapter devoted to Keys to Success for trial attorneys

Lillian Tobias:

Many people spending their time period by playing outside together with friends, fun activity with family or just watching TV all day long. You can have new activity to pay your whole day by reading through a book. Ugh, do you think reading a book can definitely hard because you have to accept the book everywhere? It fine you can have the e-book, taking everywhere you want in your Touch screen phone. Like Trial Practice (2014) which is keeping the e-book version. So , why not try out this book? Let's see.

Denise Barnhart:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's internal or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Trial Practice (2014) can make you truly feel more interested to read.

Jason Braden:
