A Girl Like You By Gemma Burgess

Abigail just broke up with the guy she's been with since, oh, forever.

Then Robert, London's premier heartbreaker, offers to teach her the art of being single.

What can possibly go wrong?

“Five big stars. Burgess writes with humor, wit, crass, and honesty about surviving singledom. I laughed my way throughout the chapters, yet connected with all the characters, not just Abigail. I didn't find anything about the story a cliché either, which I thought was fantastic. I hate when I start a book knowing exactly what the characters are going to think, feel, and how they will act. I think a lot of readers will be able to connect with the characters, if not Abigail's then one of her friends. There is something for everybody with this story, and I highly encourage everyone to get a copy.” Chicklitplus.com
