Wonder Boy: A Gay Coming of Age Novella By Bain Taylor

Above and beyond everything else in life, Devon Bredmire likes to run. It is his one great escape from a world that doesn't always look kindly on gay teenagers; a world that can oftentimes be downright dangerous. But as he enters into high school, he quickly learns that trying to fly quietly under the gay radar, and having unbridled speed out on the running track, make for a conflicted pairing.

The super jocks of the school take notice of Devon's amazing talent, and dub him a 'phenom'. He is immediately adopted into a popular circle of some of the hottest athletes he'd ever laid eyes on - the kind of guys that could snap him like a twig for staring at their ripped bodies for a second too long - guys that should be avoided at all costs. And yet, the kind of guys that love you like a brother when you win races for the team.

*This Novella is intended for a mature audience.

Editorial Review

Review

Good little read

I honestly did not know what to expect from this book. It was an easy read very funny and full of great one liners. I loved that it had me wondering where it was going yet still flowed though. It had a couple of twists and turns and was very enjoyable. I would love more as Devon is such a great character I loved getting lost in his life. Very well written. (Amazon UK)
